tured several marines who had just come off the naval crafts and were only in the lines a few moments as reinforcements. Gee, but I'll bet they were surprised to get captured so quickly. There were some beautiful sights made by the barrage thrown by the artillery, the popping of the machine guns and the rifles. Then the signals were thrown in the sky and it was a beautiful sight. The bursting of shells and the whine of bullets were tremendous. One can never imagine how a great army can create such a noise, but it is true, nevertheless. To see the fieldpieces open up at the zero moment just in the early dawn is the greatest picture the soldlers will remember, for not one of us ever saw such sights before. It will stand out before us through life, but we are proud to fight for so noble a cause.

BEST SHOW OF SEASON

"Turn to the Right" Makes Big Hit in Chattanooga. "Turn to the Right," which has been heralded as America's greatest comedy. was probably the best theatrical pro-duction that has been through Chatta-nooga this year. The deligntful com-edy-drama—for the drama plays a large part in the story—completely captivated the large audience which turned out to the large audience which turned out to greet it.

The theme is that of the son who leaves home, gets into trouble, served a term in Sing-Sing and finally comes back home in time to keep the viliage skinflint from turning his widowed mother out of her home. Incidentally he marries the skinflint's daughter. In the end the skinnint reforms, two crook pals of the hero reform, and, of course, the hero's innocence of the charge which sent him to Sing-Sing is established.

Jason Robards, as Joe Bascom, the wayward son, proved a generous, hale-and-hearty kind of fellow that took the hearts of his audience. Mike Donlin, the former baseball player, and DeWitt Newing as Muggs and Gilly, the two crook pals, furnished the humor of the production, and it was of such at "rich". production, and it was of such a "rich' nature that the audience kept continunature that the audience kept continually on the alert, awaiting the next quip, for they came thick and fast when this pair had the stage. Jessie Todhunter cs Joe's sweetheart, and later his wife, hardly shared honors with Ruth Chester, playing the role of Mrs. Bascom. However, the acting of either could scarcely be criticized.

"Turn to the Right" carried with it what most shows lack while on the road—artistic scenery. When the curtain went up on the second act, the audience applauded vigorously, although there were no characters on the stage.

MARK OF APPRECIATION

Employes Present Willard Warner With Loving Cup.

It was a fitting mark of appreciation given Willard Warner, president of the Chattanooga Caffin and Casket company, yesterday afternoon just before the plant closed down for the day. Mr. Warner-recently sold his stock in the company and will retire to private life. He has always been held in high esteem by his men, and yesterday, the last day of his service as bead of the concern and "boss," the employes invaded his office in a body and presented him with a very handsome loving cup, in appreciation of past favors and kindnesses always shown them by the president.

E. H. Graves, representing the employes, in a few well-chosen words made the presentation of the loving cup and then read the following resolutions which had been previously adopted:

"We, as employes of the Chattanooga Coffin and Casket company, desire to express our highest esteem for our beloved president, Mr. Willard Warner, who has held such office for the past thirteen years; and it is with deepest regret that we learn of his intention to retire as head of this company. We who have had the good fortune of being associated with him will deeply feel our great loss.

"During our association with Mr. Warner, we have found him to be a man of sterling qualities, and one who at all times had the interests of his employes at heart. In the retirement of our beloved president we fully realize that we are losing a tried and true friend; therefore,

"Each of the employes of this company is sincere in the wish that his future may be blessed with happiness and sunshine,

"God bless our Mr. Warner."

Mr. Warner was taken completely by surprise, but he accepted the token of appreciation in a few feleing words and promised to continue his friendship for the men with whom he had been so long associated, and bade them, when in need of advice, not to hesitate to come to him as they had always done as his employes.

THE MEN IN CLASS AT

A sound, healthy man is never a back number. A man can be as vigorous and able at seventy as at twenty. Condition not years, puts you in the discard. A system weakened by overwork and careless living brings old age prematurely. The bodily functions are impaired and unpleasant symptoms appear. The weak spot is generally the kidneys. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you will generally find yourself in Class A. Take GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules periodically and your system will always be in working order. Your spirits will be enlivened, your muscles supple, your mind active, and your body capable of hard work.

Don't wait until you have been rejected. Commence to be a first-class man now. Go to your druggist at once Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haarlem Oil—the kind your great-grandfather used. Two capsules each day will been you found up and feeling fine. A sound, healthy man is never a back
